

Michael & Joanna

Michael and Joanna started dancing together in October 2002. Since then, representing Poland, they have won all major titles in Professional Latin category: World Professional Latin Champions (2008 and 2009), European Professional Latin Champions (2007-2011), British Professional Open Champions (2008-2011), UK Professional Open Champions (2007-2011), International Professional Open Champions (2005-2011), Polish Professional Latin Champions (2002-2010), World Professional South American Showdance Champions (2002-2004), European Professional South American Showdance Champions (2004-2005).

Michael and Joanna have performed at the most prestigious venues around the world, such as: Royal Albert Hall in London; Kodak Theatre in Los Angeles; Winter Gardens in Blackpool; Fontainebleau Hotel in Miami; Seoul Arena in Seoul; Ritz Hotel in Osaka; Kremlin in Moscow; Sydney Olympic Centre; and hundreds of other world-famous dance halls.

Every month thousands of amazed fans are attracted by Michael & Joanna's shows, with as many as 10 000 watching them on the dance floor in Budokan Hall (Tokyo) and 8 000 spectators in famous Taipei Arena.

Every year Michael & Joanna participate in 10-15 major tournaments and championships.

Millions of viewers recognise them also from TV shows around the world, such as famous BBC Strictly Come Dancing, Dancing with the Stars on TV stations in many European countries and regular star appearances on Japanese, Chinese, Korean and Taiwanese television channels. As the dance stars, experts and public figures they have been special guests on television channels across all continents.

Michael and Joanna are also actively present online. Their web site www.malitowskileunis.com gives a great platform to get the latest news, with M&J Twitter and Facebook accounts linked to it, share exclusive materials and engage the dance fans around the globe. As a result, the community of M&J active and involved fans is constantly growing.